INTERNATIONAL CO-PRODUCTION AGREEMENT

For the Production of "HARBOR LIGHTS" — Feature-Length Pilot

PREAMBLE

Agreement Date: October 3, 2023

Co-Producer A: Stellarwave Productions, Inc., a California corporation ("SPI"), 3300 Cahuenga Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90068, USA

Co-Producer B: Nordvik Screen Partners AS, a Norwegian private limited company ("NSP"), Drammensveien 82, 0271 Oslo, Norway

SPI and NSP are each referred to herein individually as a "Co-Producer" and collectively as the "Co-Producers." This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions under which the Co-Producers shall jointly develop, finance, produce, and distribute the television drama series working title "HARBOR LIGHTS" (the "Project").

1. PROJECT OVERVIEW

- Format: One-hour episodic drama
- Initial Order: Two (2) seasons, 12 episodes per season
- Production Language: English (primary); Norwegian dialogue in Nordvik co-produced storylines
- Shooting Locations: Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada; Oslo and Bergen, Norway
- Estimated Production Budget (Season 1): USD $22,400,000
- Estimated Production Budget (Season 2): USD $24,800,000 (subject to adjustment per Section 4.3)

2. IP OWNERSHIP AND RIGHTS SPLIT

2.1 The Co-Producers shall jointly own all right, title, and interest in and to the Project, including all underlying intellectual property, on the following basis:

Rights Category	SPI Share	NSP Share	Territory
North American Distribution	70%	30%	USA/Canada
European Distribution	30%	70%	All EEA + UK
Asia-Pacific Distribution	50%	50%	Worldwide
Rest of World	60%	40%	Worldwide
Streaming / SVOD Global	55%	45%	Worldwide
Merchandising & Ancillary	60%	40%	Worldwide
Format / Remake Rights	50%	50%	Worldwide

3. CREATIVE CONTROL

3.1 Showrunner. SPI shall hold the position of lead showrunner through its designated representative, Garrett Finley-Odom. NSP shall designate a co-executive producer with meaningful creative input on all storylines set in Norway and on all storylines involving Norwegian characters.

3.2 Writing Room. The writing room shall be staffed with a minimum of forty percent (40%) writers who hold Norwegian citizenship or residency, and a minimum of forty percent (40%) writers who hold U.S. citizenship or residency, in each case for so long as any Norwegian-based storylines remain active in the Series.

3.3 Key Creative Approvals. The following creative decisions require mutual approval of both Co-Producers: (a) casting of series regulars; (b) major storyline changes affecting Norwegian co-production elements; (c) showrunner changes; (d) budget overages exceeding ten percent (10%) of any line item; (e) greenlight decisions for additional seasons beyond the initial two-season order.

4. FINANCING AND BUDGET

4.1 Initial Financing. The Co-Producers shall finance the Project as follows:

- SPI Contribution: USD $13,440,000 (60% of Season 1 budget), funded through a combination of pre-sales, tax credits, and equity investment.
- NSP Contribution: USD $8,960,000 (40% of Season 1 budget), funded through Norwegian Film Institute support (confirmed commitment letter attached as Exhibit C), Norwegian tax incentive rebate (anticipated 25% qualifying spend rebate), and NSP equity.

4.2 Norwegian Tax Rebate. NSP represents that the Norwegian Film Institute has provisionally approved the Project under Norway's TV Drama Series Incentive Program, subject to meeting minimum Norway spend thresholds of NOK 45,000,000 in eligible production expenditures. NSP shall use commercially reasonable efforts to maximize qualifying Norwegian spend. Any rebate received shall be applied first to reduce NSP's cash equity contribution, with any excess treated as additional recoupable investment.

4.3 Budget Overages. Overages not covered by contingency shall be funded by the Co-Producers in proportion to their respective financing percentages, subject to a maximum overage obligation per Co-Producer of ten percent (10%) of their respective initial contribution, beyond which the Co-Producers shall negotiate in good faith regarding additional financing arrangements, production modifications, or co-financing from third-party sources.

5. RECOUPMENT AND PROFIT SHARING

Net Proceeds from all exploitation of the Project shall be distributed in the following order of priority:

1. First, repayment of all third-party production loans and bank financing, pro rata.
2. Second, repayment of each Co-Producer's respective equity contribution, pari passu.
3. Third, distribution of a development fee pool of USD $800,000, split 60% SPI / 40% NSP.
4. Fourth, Net Profits distributed 55% SPI / 45% NSP on a worldwide basis after deduction of all agreed distribution and marketing costs.

6. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California, USA, without giving effect to conflict of law principles. Notwithstanding the foregoing, matters specifically pertaining to Norwegian law obligations, Norwegian Film Institute compliance, and Norwegian labor requirements shall be governed by applicable Norwegian law. All disputes shall be submitted to ICC arbitration in Los Angeles, California, with proceedings conducted in English, by a panel of three (3) arbitrators, one selected by each Co-Producer and the third selected by mutual agreement of the first two.
